

Double your benefits with a Chamber Affiliate membership.

When you join Plexus, the Chamber of Commerce for the LGBT Community and Allies, and COSE, you'll have more resources and opportunities to help your business grow. Plus, you'll strengthen your presence in your local community while supporting economic development of the entire region. Become a Chamber Affiliate and get the best of both worlds.

Your local resource

Local ties. Connect with local LGBT-affiliated businesses and community leaders to develop sales leads and business skills. Attend free networking nights and special events.

Advanced education. Attend programs, including the Small Business Roundtable and the Leadership Series, to help improve sales and manage finances. Learn how to deal with non-discrimination issues.

Plexus Supplier Diversity Summit. Learn how to get certified as a diverse supplier and gain more procurement opportunities.

Employee Resource Groups. Ongoing ERG support forums focus on best practices and retention of LGBT and allied employees.

Your regional resource

Stronger connections. Plug into a regional network of 15,000 entrepreneurs. Meet new vendors. Connect with new clients.

Bigger savings. Leverage the buying power of 15,000 members to save on payroll, gas, electric, office products and more.

Educational opportunities. Take advantage of over 125 events and seminars every year. Get free admission to the COSE Small Business Conference where 1,500 members gather to learn, connect, and grow.

Voice in government. Be heard in Columbus and Washington, D.C. concerning legislative issues that affect your bottom line.

COSE Small Business Conference

The COSE Small Business Conference is a two-day conference/tradeshow packed with educational workshops, national keynote speakers and effective networking opportunities. You can attend this first-class small business event for FREE with your Chamber Affiliate membership.

“The COSE and Plexus partnership is an excellent value and opens new ways to access services, resources and opportunities for our business.”
